New Mexico U Names Local Man to Staff

Dr. Jerald R. Izatt of Torrance, research physicist for Nortronics, Inc., has been appointed to the physics faculty of New Mexico State University.

Dr. Harold Daw, head of the physics department, announced Dr. Izatt will join the faculty this fall. He will be assigned half-time duties in teaching and half-time for research in infra-red and atmospheric physics and directing Ph. D. candidates. His teaching field will be optics.

Dr. Izatt has been with Nortronics since Aug. 20, 1960. He had previously been with Westinghouse Electric as an analyst for fire control system and later for space communication systems. Earlier he was with Douglas Aircraft Co. in digital computer programming.

A native of Idaho, he received his bachelor's degree at University of Utah and his Ph. D. at Johns Hopkins University. While at Johns Hopkins he was a research assistant in the Laboratory of Astrophysics and Physical Meteorology from 1957 to 1960 and in 1955-57 a university fellow.

Camp Fire Girls Plan Torrance Park Day Camp

The A-B-C's of summer — arts and crafts, beaches and camping art are as much a part of summer as are "dog days." How many can claim the experience of having watched the birds at work and play? Bird watching is a lost art among the children in our populous city.

Camp Fire Girls' day camps provide outdoor living experiences and opportunities for exploring the world of nature for over 1500 Blue Bird, Camp Fire Girls, and Horizon Club members of the Los Angeles Area Council of Camp Fire Girls in 16 different city parks throughout the county beginning June 19.

THE HARBOR District of the L. A. Area Council of Camp Fire Girls will have over 300 girls (from Gardena, Hawthorne, Lawndale, Torrance, the beach cities south from Manhattan Beach to San Pedro, Waverly, and other Harbor area communities), along with 70 to 75 adults serving as counselors, aids, and special resource people, gathering at Torrance Park beginning the second week of July and continuing until the end of July for the annual Day Camping program.

Cooking, exploring, hiking, naturelore, quiet activities, nature crafts, singing and games fill the daytime hours from 9:30 a.m. to 3:30 p.m. for the six days of day camp, July 12-13; 19-20; 26-27. Each day's activities relate to the preceding day, to give the campers the continuity of experience so valuable in differentiating day camp from just a day in the park and in relating it to resident camp experience.

CAMP GROUPS OF 14-15 girls of similar age, with their two adult counselors, plan their meals build their fire and cook out of doors. Cooking experiences vary from beard on a stick to hobo stew foil dishes, and reflector oven baking.

Other trained adults and Camp Fire Horizon Club senior high school girls will serve as special resource people and program aids. Each camp has a trained nurse in attendance.

Magic Chef Birthday Is Big Success

Magic Chef Market, 21740 S. Hawthorne Blvd., celebrated its first birthday Thursday through Sunday, July 13-16, with glamorous prizes, free orleids and a huge birthday cake that was served with coffee all day yesterday.

Beautiful festive cake was iced by Ellen Cole, talented cake decorator who has been with Magic Chef since their opening a year ago. Mrs. Cole is a familiar sight to many local residents who have watched her quick fingers work charming and intricate designs on many cakes through the bakery window.

Averaging around 100 cakes per week, Mrs. Cole also manages to raise four children and teach Cake Decoration classes at the Torrance Education School.

In addition to the cake eating ceremonies, visitors are invited to sign their names for a drawing which features a trip to Hawaii for two and a deluxe O'Keefe and Merrett gas range. Winners need not be present, and drawing will be held July 24.
